Faith Heritage School

FHS was established in 1972. It is a co-ed Christian school with grades Kindergarten through twelve. The major emphasis is a college preparatory program. Faith Heritage is located in the Valley section of the city of Syracuse and draws students from 22 local school districts, spanning a radius of 40 miles including Syracuse and the surrounding suburbs. We are a multi-denominational Christian school, with a commitment to teach every subject from a Biblical perspective. We are a member of the Onondaga High School League, Section III, and the New York State Public High School Athletic Association and compete with public, private and other Christian schools.
